I've been playing for 24+ years, so I was looking for something that sounded a little more full. That does not necessarily mean that the piece must be difficult - only that the arranger can put together a nice piece that sounds more difficult than it is. These pieces are very simple, and would work great as a performance piece for an early to mid intermediate player. For an adult performance, I feel they lack some maturity and sparkle in the sound. On a good note: I like that the chords are included, so these pieces could easily be adapted to a full band performance. :)

wonderful book with beautiful hymn arrangements I can (mostly) play. I am not the best piano player (I took lessons as a child, and a few in college), but these sound impressive and lovely with minimal practice. Perfect for whipping up some special music on short notice.

This is a great book for those who play often and would like a few easy, but very nice arrangements of a wide variety of songs. I would like to see a spiral bound book as it is impossible to get the book, even with books holding it on either side. But love the selection of songs. Thank you.

I am so pleased with the quality of the arrangements of these newer Christian Worship songs, and have so enjoyed both A SOLO A SUNDAY volume 1 & 2.

I use this book often in playing for church services. Easy to read.

Awesome! Very much wish I could still get Volume 1.

Not too easy not too hard just the way I like it!!

Nice book.
