Customer Reviews

For those seeking the historical formation of the UCC, this is a great book. Explanations are concise, combining all of the traditions, movements, and the background stories of the thoughts and people involved in the making of the fourth largest Protestant denomination in the U. S.

This is a helpful introduction to the roots and practice of the United Church of Christ. A series of essays collected from a widely diverse set of writers. A basic text for anyone learning about UCC history and polity.

This was one of my favorite books on the hx and polity of the UCC- if that's what you are looking for - you should buy this book (even if it is not a required text - I say BUY IT)

Product as described and arrived promptly.
