

The book was found

How Can I Get To Heaven?: The Bible's Teaching On Salvation-Made Easy To Understand

Synopsis

How Can I Get to Heaven? By Robert Singenis, forward by Thomas Howard Today, and in past centuries, thousands of people have struggled with that sometimes puzzling question.

Unfortunately, there are often as many answers as there are people and churches in the world. But this book, which is the condensed version of the best-selling Not By Faith Alone: The Biblical Evidence for the Catholic Doctrine of Justification, will clear away the confusion and give you an understanding that you always knew possible but just needed the proper guidance to bring out. It is written especially for you: the beginner, the student, the housewife, the young adult, the non-scholarly layman. As with most things that are godly and true, the answer is really very simple. And if your mind and heart are open, this book will not only show you the way to heaven but it will also give you a new outlook on life on earth. After reading it, you will know what God expects of you and what will lead you to his heavenly mansion. Imprimatur. Reviews Father George Rutler, - November 23, 1996: "I am pleased that the important doctrine of Justification has received a thorough apologia as this book offers. It is especially gratifying to read so clear an account of a matter which has often been sadly confused in the rush of polemics." Bishop Fabian Bruskewitz, - November 23, 1996: "Robert Singenis leaves nothing to chance, no stone unturned, no concession for any other reasonable argument." Father Ronald Tacelli, - November 23, 1996: "Only some books deserve to be called 'seminal' and 'revolutionary.' This book is surely one of them."

Book Information

Paperback: 320 pages

Publisher: Queenship Publishing Company (July 1997)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 1579180078

ISBN-13: 978-1579180072

Product Dimensions: 8.5 x 5.5 x 0.8 inches

Shipping Weight: 8.8 ounces

Average Customer Review: 4.8 out of 5 stars See all reviews (8 customer reviews)

Best Sellers Rank: #412,211 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #66 in Books > Christian Books & Bibles > Catholicism > Theology #203 in Books > Christian Books & Bibles > Catholicism > Roman Catholicism #535 in Books > Christian Books & Bibles > Theology > Salvation Theory

Customer Reviews

Robert Sungenis does an outstanding job of presenting the biblical truth about the doctrine of justification, his case is simply irrefutable. Having held to the belief in justification by faith alone for most of my life, it took a great amount of effort on my part to maintain my objectivity as I examined what the bible really teaches about how a person is saved. To maintain the "faith alone" position after reading this book would be to ignore Scripture.

"[Abraham]'s faith and his actions worked together;his faith was made perfect through his actions."This is what saved Abraham, and this is what Catholics really believe.Sungenis shows that a person can't work his way to heaven-we aren't employees of the Jesus Christ Corporation. He also notes that the only time in the Bible that the words "faith" and "alone" are only put together in James 2:24. This is when James writes that we are not saved by faith alone. It would be good to read James 2:14-24 about this.But more importantly, Sungenis shows that being saved is a process. Even when we accept Christ in our lives, that doesn't mean good works spontaneously flow out of us. Earlier in Ch. 2, James sets of a poor and a rich man attending the same Christian meeting. The temptation is to adore the rich and ignore the poor. And this often happens. Instead, we must stand guard, even with our faith, to resist doing evil.

"How Can I Get To Heaven" is a shorter, simplified version of "Not By Faith Alone" by the same author. This books omits the references to the Greek texts and the appendices which are in the "Not By" book.But it is still an excellent book, outlined in pretty much the same format as the much larger "Not By" book (300 pages as opposed to 700). It covers in simple, readable language the teachings of Paul, James, and Christ on the subject of justification. It shows how all of their teachings are in perfect harmony with no need to deflate, dismiss, or outright ignore the texts which shoot "sola fide" in the heart.It covers how justification is NOT a one-time event, how one's salvation CAN be lost, how Christ's righteousness is actually infused into us, not merely imputed to us, how justification is a familial restoration and not merely a courtroom decree. It also touches on predestination, free will, final justification, "certain knowledge" of one's own salvation, and purgatory.This book is sufficient to arm Catholics who wants to stand up to those who try to teach them "justification by faith alone." It would also be a good book for a protestant who wants to learn what the Catholic Church REALLY teaches - not necessarily what your parents and pastors TOLD you it teaches. If you are a serious protestant who would not mind putting "sola fide" to the proof, yes, read this book.Five stars!!! If one wants a work of heavy scholarship on this subject, see also "Not By Faith Alone" by the same author.

I think that this book is well written and surpasses his other book on the topic: "Not by Faith Alone." It is easy to understand and shows the Protestant doctrine on Justification for what it is: a 16th century invention that has no basis in God's Holy Word.

To read Robert Sungenis is to cease being Protestant. If you are a Bible believing Protestant with an honestly open mind, then I double dog dare you to read this book. The only thing you have to loose is a whole lot of anxiety. And you just might gain that peace and joy you've been reading about all your life but never really experienced.

Robert Sungenis (born 1955), is the founder of the Bellarmine Theological Forum and Catholic Apologetics International. He has written very important works of Roman Catholic apologetics such as "Not by Faith Alone: A Biblical Study of the Catholic Doctrine of Justification," "Not by Bread Alone: The Biblical and Historical Evidence for the Eucharistic Sacrifice of the Catholic Mass." He has also been criticized for making anti-Jewish remarks, as well as for advocating Geocentrism (i.e., that the Sun revolves around the Earth, and not vice versa; see his book "Galileo Was Wrong: The Church Was Right"). In his Introduction to this 1998 book, Sungenis writes, "Despite this confusion, this author believes God did not leave his Church with a confusing assortment of competing answers. From the beginning of his dealings with men, we will show that God made it very plain how they could be saved... The book you are holding will simplify and thoroughly explain this issue for you. When all is said and done, I hope you can agree with me that the question, 'How Can I Get to Heaven?' is not really complicated at all." Here are some quotations from the book: "Did the apostle Paul teach justification by faith alone? For those who propose that he did, a very haunting question remains: Why didn't Paul use the specific phrase 'faith alone' anywhere in his New Testament writings... What would have stopped him from such an important addition if the solitude of faith in regard to salvation was at the foremost of his mind?" (Pg. 2) "When Paul says Abraham was justified by faith, he has in view a faith which incorporates the whole of Abraham's life, a faith that believes God in spite of the circumstantial evidence that militates against believing, a faith that envisions the ultimate glory of the heavenly kingdom." (Pg. 36) "We may infer that James understands a continual relationship between faith and works from the use of the singular 'work' in James 2:20-24. Although James is singling out the sacrifice of Isaac as the work of Abraham, this is only for the purpose of illustration." (Pg. 97) "Although the New Testament can be used to support the possibility that SOME people who fall away were never justified originally, it does not apply this to EVERY case." (Pg. 188)"Suffice it to say, however, that the doctrine of predestination is not a 'Calvinistic' idea. The early fathers of the Church taught predestination and incorporated it into the official statements of the Catholic Church early in its history." (Pg. 246)"God foreknew that Esau, out of his own free will, would choose to remain in godlessness. We know God is basing his decision on his foreknowledge of the future, since in Genesis 25:22-23 God foretells the future to Rebecca." (Pg. 270)

Although Robert Sungenis has certainly received a bad reputation in Catholic apologetics because of some extreme opinions in other works, there is no doubt that his work is an invaluable contribution to biblically defending Catholicism. This work is very thorough and provides very little room for dispute. I highly suggest this book for all interested readers.

Download to continue reading...

How Can I Get to Heaven?: The Bible's Teaching on Salvation-Made Easy to Understand The Bible: How to Read, Study, and Understand the Bible (The Bible, Bible Study, Christian, Catholic, Holy Bible) The Bible Made Easy An Easy-To-Understand Pocket Reference Guide - 1997 publication. Teaching As a Subversive Activity: A No-Holds-Barred Assault on Outdated Teaching Methods-with Dramatic and Practical Proposals on How Education Can Be Made Relevant to Today's World The Bible: The Bible Study Guide For Beginners - Understand The New Testament: Your Bible Study Guide To Each Book In The New Testament From The NIV, Get ... Guides and Workbooks For Prayer Warriors 4) Understand Rap: Explanations of Confusing Rap Lyrics that You & Your Grandma Can Understand Wild & Wacky Totally True Bible Stories: All About Salvation CD (Mr. Henry's Wild & Wacky Bible Stories) I CAN CAN RELISHES, Salsa, Sauces & Chutney!!: How to make relishes, salsa, sauces, and chutney with quick, easy heirloom recipes from around the ... (I CAN CAN Frugal Living Series) (Volume 3) Sacraments in Scripture: Salvation History Made Present Theory Made Easy for Kids, Level 1 (Made Easy (Alfred)) Theory Made Easy for Kids, Level 2 (Made Easy (Alfred)) Math Made Easy: Fourth Grade Workbook (Math Made Easy) Math Made Easy: Kindergarten Workbook (Math Made Easy) Vascular Surgery Made Easy [With 3 Dvdroms] (Made Easy (Jaypee Publishing)) Pips Made Easy Pivot Scalping Method: Money made so easy! The Music of Eagles Made Easy for Guitar: Includes Their Greatest Hits (The Music of... Made Easy for Guitar Series) Mosaics Made Easy (Crafts Made Easy) Math Made Easy: Third Grade Workbook (Math Made Easy) Photography: DSLR Photography Made Easy: Simple Tips on How You Can Get Visually Stunning Images Using Your DSLR (Photography, Digital Photography, Creativity, ... Digital, Portrait, Landscape, Photoshop) Learn Russian | Easy Reader | Easy Listener |

Parallel Text Audio Course No. 1 (Russian Easy Reader | Easy Learning | Easy Audio)

Dmca