"Jacob: Following God Without Looking Back" is another installment by Gene Getz in the Men of Character series. This title is on Jacob, whose original name meant "Trickster" and whose actions got him into a lot of trouble. The book consists of 13 chapters with the following titles: 1. It All Begins at Home 2. A Tricky Plot 3. A Beautiful Novella 4. The Great Deception 5. A Born-Again Experience 6. Reaping What We Sow 7. A Modern-Day Opera 8. Change Points 9. A Difficult Confrontation 10. Solving Problems God's Way 11. Wrestling With God 12. Reconciliation and Forgiveness 13. Back Home Again While the book is more tailored towards the lay reader, pastors can also benefit for their own personal lives and also for sermon preparation. Read and be encouraged to know that God is powerful enough to use anyone He chooses! Recommended.

We used this in our Men's Bible study at Church and have used several of his books previously. This is one of his best in this series.

Delivered on time and as described

AWESOME

Unfortunately this book did not keep my interest. It was a lot of reviewing of the plot without saying much. I have enjoyed Gene Getz's writing in the past, but not this time.
